

KNOW AN OUTSTANDING YOUNG LEADER IN YOUR COMMUNITY?
WE WANT TO KNOW THEM TOO!

Leadership that focuses on ethical decision making.

FABIOLA LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

AT CULVER-STOCKTON COLLEGE

The Fabiola Leadership Academy at Culver-Stockton College provides week-long immersive leadership training for students entering 9-12th grades. The program encourages participants to grow their talents and apply them to become effective, ethical leaders in their homes, school, and workplace. Attendees will discover their passions through interesting activities while participating in civic engagement and meet student leaders from the tri-state area while learning how to impact their community positively.

The curriculum is inspired by the Moorman Pillars of Leadership and based on the Social Change Model. Components will include Community based Learning, Personal Leadership, Group Leadership, Leadership for Society, Ethical Leadership, and Teamwork Interaction.
